The image displays a page of musical notation for a 4th system, consisting of 12 staves of music. The notation includes various notes, rests, and accidentals (flats and sharps) across different clefs. The first six staves (97-102) are in bass clef and feature a sequence of notes with flats. The last six staves (103-108) are in bass clef and feature a sequence of notes with sharps. The notation is arranged in a continuous line across the page.

This page contains 12 staves of musical notation, all in bass clef. The notation is a continuous sequence of notes and rests, primarily consisting of eighth and sixteenth notes. The key signature changes throughout the piece, indicated by sharp and flat symbols. The first staff starts with a natural key signature. The second staff has one flat (Bb). The third staff has two sharps (F# and C#). The fourth staff has two flats (Bb and Eb). The fifth staff has two sharps (F# and C#). The sixth staff has one flat (Bb). The seventh staff has two sharps (F# and C#). The eighth staff has one flat (Bb). The ninth staff has two sharps (F# and C#). The tenth staff has one flat (Bb). The eleventh staff has two sharps (F# and C#). The twelfth staff has one flat (Bb). The notation is dense and rhythmic, typical of a technical exercise for a specific finger.
