4th

The image displays a page of musical notation for a 4th system, consisting of 12 staves of music. The notation includes various notes, rests, and accidentals (flats and sharps) across the staves. The staves are numbered 97, 101, 105, 109, 113, 117, 121, 125, 129, 133, 137, and 141. The music is written in a single system, with each staff containing a line of notes and rests. The notation is complex, featuring many accidentals and a variety of note values.

This page contains 12 staves of musical notation, each starting with a measure number in the left margin. The notation is written on a single treble clef staff per line. The music consists of eighth-note and quarter-note patterns with various accidentals (sharps, flats, and naturals) placed above or below the notes. The measures are grouped into four-measure phrases, with some phrases containing a repeat sign. The overall style is that of a technical exercise for a jazz instrument, likely the trumpet, given the '5th' label.
