The image displays a page of musical notation for a 3rd ending, consisting of 12 staves of bass clef music. The notation includes various accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals) and dynamics (accents, slurs). The staves are numbered 49 through 60. The music is written in a style typical of jazz or blues, with a focus on rhythmic patterns and melodic lines. The key signature and time signature are not explicitly shown but can be inferred from the context of the page.

The image displays a page of musical notation for a 4th part, consisting of 12 staves of music. The notation includes various notes, rests, and accidentals (flats and sharps) across different systems. The first system (staves 1-2) starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The second system (staves 3-4) continues with the same key signature. The third system (staves 5-6) introduces a key signature change to two flats. The fourth system (staves 7-8) continues with two flats. The fifth system (staves 9-10) changes to a key signature of three flats. The sixth system (staves 11-12) changes to a key signature of three sharps. The notation is dense with notes and rests, typical of a jazz or contemporary music score.
